“ *Vernon was a good friend of mine, we worked the night shifts together when he was at the pipe stills. Vernon used to fix all the filter house hands and his supervisor (me) breakfast, he called it dish rag hash. It was a special time we shared in the early mornings before Vernon and the filter house guys had to do their morning gauges. I remember when Vernon got some new issue company shirts and his name was spelled Veron instead of Vernon, we had a good time with that because it was hard to get one on Vernon. I will never forget those times, they were special because we were just like a family !
I will miss all of that and I will miss Vernon.
