

Virgil Lee Miller

August 22, 1943 - June 12, 2021

On Saturday morning, June 12, 2021, Virgil Lee Miller left this life to go be with our heavenly father and his son. He had been battling COPD for quite some time. Virgil was born on August 22, 1943, in Barnsdall, Oklahoma, and will be put to rest in Barnsdall. He was a man who had a passion for the outdoors and a love for the simple things in life. He loved nothing better than to be listening to coon hounds treed down at a creek or reading a good western novel. He spent most of his life in the construction industry building everything from bridges to custom homes and passed this knowledge of building to his two sons. He was known as a hardworking, honest man who never walked away when a job needed to be done or a friend needed help. As his son, he would tell me that if you do not have time to do a job right the first time, how will you ever find time to do it the second time. After a bad accident almost retired him permanently, he still went on to help start, with his sons, a construction company that is still going strong and has become a successful company today. He spent many years as a foster parent and touched the lives of a lot of children who still think of him as a father to them as well. He is survived by one sister, Mary Jo Grayson of Pryor, and one brother Glen Miller of Barnsdall, and a host of nieces and nephews. A private family gathering will be held at a later date. He spent his last few years with his brother Glen getting to do all the things he loved to do. He left quite a legacy in life and his quick smile will be missed by all.
