“ Dear Family and Friends,

I'm sorry for your loss. I just wanted to leave you with an encouraging scripture that has helped me deal with the loss of a loved one. It is found in the Bible Book of Palm 34:18 here God assures us that He is near to those broken at heart and crushed in spirit.

“ So Sorry for your Loss for Virginia Family and Friends
My Thoughts and Prayers are with you
The First Time I Saw Virginia we were in the First Grade
We went all though School together
We saw each other at Class Reunions
We would see each other at Wal Mart and visited In Fact the last time we seen each other was three or four months ago at Wal Mart .
We both were in the Produce Dept. and we both have a nice visit.
Virginia I will missed you and our visits Rest in Peace and Someday we will see each other again in Heaven
and we will again have a great visit my Friend
Your Friend

“ We will miss your smiling face and all of the great experiences you shared on Facebook with us! Seems like yesterday that you were cheering on our Ironmen and we didn't have a care in the world! I know you'll be a beautiful Angel in heaven and God's own cheerleader! We will all miss you in the class of 69!

“ Virginia and I became fast friends from the day we met when I started working at ConocoPhillips. She has always displayed a kind, giving, cheerful, thoughtful, and caring nature. I truly missed having her at work after she retired, as I no longer had her here everyday to bounce things off of, or to hear my door close and immediately knew who it was without even looking up! There was my girl, needing to talk! Still can believe she's gone. Sending my condolences and many prayers to her family that she loved very much and talked about all the time. May God give your hearts much needed peace in your time of bereavement.

“ 15 years Virginia and I were acquainted and had become good friends. We eventually were even co-workers. I loved Virginia's enthusiastic spirit. She was always fun loving and extremely kind hearted. Her glass was always, always half full. She was a thoughtful and sharing friend, and she will be greatly missed. God bless her family and their loss of this beautiful, kind and loving woman. (hugs and love to you all)
