

Virginia Scharosch

March 26, 1947 - November 17, 2024

Virginia Sue Scharosch, 77, of Nowata, OK passed away on November 17th, 2024, in Tulsa, OK with family at her side. She was born on March 26th, 1947, in Maysville, Arkansas to Fred Ellis Cunningham and Helen Virginia (Carey) Cunningham.

Susie attended grade school in Childers, OK and Alluwe in her high school years. She graduated in 1965 and obtained a license in Cosmetology. She was also crowned "Fairest of the Fair" by Governor Edmondson. She was always a hard worker from the time she got out of school. From working as a cosmetologist, to driving a gin truck for her dad in the logging industry, along with many different things in between, she could do it all.

After receiving her education, her and her family moved to Bell, TX for a short time. That's when she met the love of her life, Darrell Dean Scharosch. They got married on November 6th, 1969, in Bell, TX. Shortly after, they moved to Georgia, until her husband was honorably discharged from the Army in 1972. They then moved to Nowata, OK where they made their home and started their family with the birth of their son, Gary in 1973.

In 1989 her and her husband opened D&L 66. She was known for serving the best hamburgers in Nowata, chicken fried steak, meatloaf and catfish Fridays. Susie loved picking the guitar, reading and cooking for her family, especially her homemade chicken and noodles and hot rolls. She always put her family and others first. She was dearly loved and appreciated as a mother, sister, granny, and friend. Her generous spirit, loving personality, and orneriness will remain in our hearts forever.

Susie is preceded in death by her husband, Dean Scharosch; her parents, Fred and Helen Cunningham and one sister, LaWanda Rhoades.

She is survived by her son, Gary Scharosch of Nowata, OK; two grandchildren, Ryan Scharosch and Emilea Scharosch of Nowata, OK; six siblings, Bob Cunningham and wife Neta of Alluwe, OK; Linda Maggard of Nowata, OK; Carolyn Stanart of Collinsville, OK; Leonard Cunningham of Foyil, OK; Kay McKee of Alluwe, OK; Debbie Deatherage of Wichita, KS; as well as several nieces, nephews and many friends.
