“ Angi,

Your mom was such a beautiful, kind and friendly soul. She treated me just like family. It was very easy to fall in love with her in return because of her sweet personality, beauty, and kindness. My heart is breaking for you, your family, her friends, and the many others whose lives she touched and who are feeling her loss. She was a true angel on earth! My love and prayers are with you and your family.

“ Virginia was such a great light....she was a comfort to those at the clinic in need. Dearly missed is hardly enough to describe how much she will be thought of every time I see her desk. She was a lovely soul and I was proud to have met her.

I remember Virginia read to me at the small library across from the Post Office in Ramona. Mrs. Ruby Sherrick ran the small library there. Virginia was always so kind to me. I send condolences to her family. I am so sorry for your loss. Peace Love & Healing Prayers. She will be missed but will always be in our hearts.

“ Wow what an awesome lady Ms Virginia is to many of us here at CNHC. She could make you chuckle and see the irony and humor in almost anything. She always encourages and supports a friend in need. I will remember a sweet gracious lady that was a kind friend to me often. And always feel blessed Ms Virginia happened to me. Heaven has gained a sweetheart with a fierce strong will to take care of those she loved and the underdogs in this world.

*Love Always,
