“ Knew Wayne all of my life, From a young age he and .y brother Teddy Hitchcock were real close friends, my mother was one of their Cub Scout Leader.
Later in our adult lives we crossed paths at a well known establishment in Dewey,Okla. This is when I met Sandy. And she had her hands full, he was ornery as could be. Always look towards their home when driving down the Hwy, as they still live where he grew up at. Sandy and Candi you are both in my prayers.

“ I remember one time I was driving back from Kansas and had to go to the bathroom. I knew my bonus family would be sitting out front watching cars drive by. So, I pulled in. I got out of the car and was running to the house to use the restroom. Wayne got up and stopped me and said, I want to dance with you. Now he knew I needed to use the bathroom. He held me and danced. I almost wet myself!!! I fought to go in but he held on tighter. Then he let me go. I barely made it. I came back outside and said ok, lets dance now, and he said nah, I don't want to dance anymore!!!
