“ Mr. P was a dear family friend. He was my dad's buddy. What a pair they were. I can remember our family going to their house for a meal as long as 50 years ago. Mrs. P was a great cook. He was the funniest man. His expressions were priceless. I'll smile when I think of him. Rest now, sweet friend.

“ Dutch was one of a kind! A gentle and kind soul. He had a great sense of humor even though he suffered much in his later years. Dutch would always brighten my day when I saw him, he just had a way about him. It was my honor to accompany Dutch on the Oklahoma Honor flight back in October. It was a very long, long day but he was a trooper and it was wonderful to see him honored by everyone we came into contact with that day. I think he really enjoyed the trip. Attached are a few pictures from his time in Washington D.C.
