“ I worked for Mr. Bearden at Reda Pump. It wasn't that long ago I ran into him at Walmart and had the opportunity to Thank him again for some of the best advice he could have given me at my young age which helps me enjoy my life today. He explained the impact of investing during the early years of employment. RIP

“ I was in the same class in school with Bill in Barnsdall for seven years. We spent a lot of time at each other's homes. In later years we both were amateur operators. Occasionally I met up with Bill, Burt, and their families at Goldies for hamburgers. He will be missed by many. Joe Tucker
