“ It was an honor to have known Bill and his wife Dorothy. I enjoyed talking with Bill in the last couple years. He lived such a full rich life and recieved great pleasure talking about the past. Bill also beamed when talking about his girls and how they look after their dad. My condolences to the family.

“ Dear Blakemore Family,

Our family mourns the loss of your beloved father and our long term, dear friend. We not only loved him because of the deep friendship he had with our dad, Derry Ebert, but because of our years of interacting with him through horses, donkeys, agriculture, architecture, native American art and good times.

He was a leader, an inspiration, and a gentleman. We love him. He will be missed.

“ Dear Carol, Kay, Julie, and Jan,

I will forever cherish the fond memories I have of working for your dad at Woolaroc. Although extremely civic minded, he was definitely a family man first. While eating lunch at the Lodgea every day, we developed a friendship that included each other's families. I can tell you without a doubt that he loved his girls deeply and enjoyed talking about them. His grandchildren gave him a double dose of joy and pride and he always had pictures to share. I pray the Lord's special blessings for you during this difficult time.

Hugs,

Bill and Connie Collins
