“ My deepest Sympathy for you Di in this time of loss to you and this world It was only a few short months ago when Kent, Louis and I were on the lake at Washington Cove. Kent was trying to get the trolling motor on his boat to work (unsuccessfully), he said "When I get this fixed we are going fishing, ok?". Well, I'm still looking forward to that day in a place called Heaven where trolling motors never break down, the sky is always blue, and the fish are always biting. Where there are no more tears of sadness and no separation with our Supreme Friend Jesus to share His goodness and love by our side. I must say 'Farewell' to my good friend Kent for a season but we will ALL be together again, God gave us that promise. Until then, God Bless and Keep you ... If I can be of assistance in any way Di, please do not hesitate to call on me, I love you. Vern L

“ Surprised at Kent's passing, but remembering all the good times we had at family reunions, trips and just visiting. You will be missed Kent but I know now that you are well and at peace. Di, remember and think about all the happy times you two had together and you will find some comfort in that.

I am so sorry to hear about Kent. Even though he is four and a half years older than me he always treated me equally like a brother and just like a family member that made me feel really neat. I always enjoyed Kent's friendliness and openness about his feelings his life and his family he will be greatly missed but I know he's in heaven now.
