“ David /Pat, I really don't know what to say. Alvis was like another dad to me. Hard how life changed that but I never have lost my love for Alvis or you guys. Y'all were always like family, David like a brother. I'm sad that time and distance has changed things some but please know that I grieve with you for the loss of Alvis . I will never forget the memories made with Alvis, hunting, going to ropings/rodeos, and all the good times. I'm sorry the latter years of his life were what they were, but he is now at peace and healed, with our savior. Steve Young

“ I guess my most vivid memory of Alvis was when he and Mrs. Johnson took a station wagon filled with about eight 13 year olds to Tulsa for a day of fun and food. We ate at the Zuider Zee restaurant. This was my first experience with fine dining plus it had a windmill on it. Alvis convinced us all that he had found a pearl in his fried Oysters. He played it for all it was worth. I think we all knew it was part of a shell but isn't it a better story the way Alvis told it. To me that was Alvis. He always made you feel good about your encounter. My car literally exploded coming home from college and Alvis was in

In my price range. He was honest with me. Not much of a car. Been in a wreck but Ernie the engine is strong. I drove that 1970 Monte Carlo for three more years and made it through school. David, Mrs Johnson, Alvis was a big part Nowata to me. Bigger than life. You have my deepest sympathy. You know, I bet that was a pearl after all.
