“ I only interacted with him a couple of times, but I always knew if my cousin married him, he must have been a special guy. He leaves a grieving but TOUGH wife and loving offspring. I am so sorry we cannot be there; we'd like to be of assistance. Cherith and I are most certainly there in spirit, and lift Susan up in prayer. We LOVE you, cuz, and admire the gifts your parents instilled in you.

“ First he was my neighbor and then became my friend. He was a great guy. Always grateful for what he had. Then he met my sis from another mother, Susan, and together they raised a great family. I'll always miss talking to him before games when he was the official. Great memories. There's a spot in Heaven where all of the "Dewey Bulldoggers" meet and I bet he's telling some great stories right now. He's in good company. Fly high Brad. You're gonna be missed.

“ Will always remember Brad as an umpire. He was a good sport with me, I would kick dirt on him and he would laugh. He will be missed. I'll really miss him calling me at the insurance office to talk coverages. I have enjoyed our friendship over the years. Susan, you and kids are in my prayers. Love you all.
