“ Bill was such a sweet, quite man. He did like to play jokes on people though. He and Maggie spent many weekends playing cards with my Mom and Dad at our house. Sending love and our thoughts and prayers for the family. Sis and Glenn Davis ”

“ I feel blessed by the good lord to have met and know Bill. He was one of a kind. Loved him for his being him. I always knew Bill had my back at the park. If he told you something , that was the way it was. He donated large amounts of money to different things and preferred it be as a unknown donor. What a hard worker. He loved his family, friends, and the good lord. I was blessed to have played a many of pitch games with him and Maggy. He could tell stories and keep me laughing, never tired of them. He and Maggy were two of my favorite campers we had. God bless Maggy, what a wonderful person. We loved both of them and rejoice knowing that William (Bill) Taggart is now in heaven waiting for the rest of us with a new deck of cards at the table. Maggy you are the best!
