

Willow Renee Nihart

October 22, 2019 - June 12, 2022

Miss Willow Renee Nihart was born on October 22nd, 2019, to Mistie Rae Nihart and Jerry Wayne Matlock in Tulsa, OK. She was an ornery, smart, sweet, little girl who could always make you laugh with her looks or her humor. Willow was the youngest of six sisters and two brothers. She loved all her siblings and was especially close to Lydia. They were great role models, who were always there for her. The wonderful stories about their adventures with Willow will be treasured for all of their lives.

Willow attended Lollipop Land Inc. in Bartlesville for more than a year and a half, where she enjoyed the company of her friends and teachers there. Her favorite pastime was playing in the housekeeping area with the babies, coloring, reading, and learning new things. She was always very curious and found ways to explore new things. She also really enjoyed looking for bugs and digging in the dirt. She was always the first child who would jump into the mud and gave no mind to dirt, it didn't matter to her, as long as she was having fun. Willow was a bright light in every person's life that met and was loved by many people.

Willow passed away at St. Francis Hospital in Tulsa, OK on June 12th, 2022 surrounded by her mom, dad, grandma, nana, and the love of her family and friends. She was preceded in death by her Great Nana: Francis Tarter, papa: Michael "Mike" Postrach, grandfather: Gary Gene Matlock, and Aunt: Vicky Renee Matlock. She was survived by her mother: Mistie Rae Nihart, Dad: Jerry Wayne Matlock, Nana: Connie Coppage, Grandma: Rosie Matlock, 6 sisters: Alexis Renee Matlock, Heidi Nicole Matlock, Addisyn Jade Matlock, Haily Renee Briggs, London, and Lydia Mae Burrus, two brothers: Dennis James Nihart and Chance Derryberry, and many many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

“ Such a gorgeous little one. She loved to go for a ride in our side by side. She would sit and enjoy the scenery and not move a muscle. We will miss her deeply. Sending our thoughts and prayers to the family.
