Courtney,

I am so sorry to hear about your Mom. Final good byes are always hard so we need to add some fond memories for you to hold onto. We lived catty corner to you in Bartlesville. Your mom probably never knew this but you were the first to slide down the bannister in our Johnstone house. It would not have surprised her because she did some things that would also classify as a first. Do you remember the story where she left her car running curbside at the Tulsa airport and raced to catch her flight. Was it your Dad who later drove to Tulsa and rescued the car?

That would not happen now. Those were the good old days.

Your Mom had a lovely smile and a twinkle in her eye. She will be missed.

Neal and I send much love to you and your family.
